

Community Conversations

A collaboration of the Monadnock Center for History and Culture and the Monadnock Ledger-Transcript

How do we welcome people into our community?
What are the factors that might influence our reception of those unfamiliar to us?
Do some people live in our communities for years without anyone taking notice? Why?

Presenters

- Andy Peterson ~ Realtor since 1979, co-owner, The Petersons
- Lina Hervas ~ an immigrant herself from the Philippines, Lina has worked with refugees from Southeast Asia who are moving to the U.S.
- Margaret Nelson ~ Executive Director, The River Center
- Leaf Seligman ~ a founder of Monadnock Restorative Community, which helps individuals who are returning to society from a period of incarceration.

After short presentations the floor will be open to all to discuss ways in which we are a welcoming community, and ways we might improve.

Bass Hall – Monadnock Center for History and Culture

19 Grove St. Peterborough

Tuesday, May 10, 7:00 p.m.

For more information call 603-924-3235

MonadnockCenter.org

Thanks to our 2015 sponsor:

This program is free and open to the public.

